Welcome to St. George's Episcopal Church on this special day when we gather to worship God and rejoice at the baptism of these new members into God's household.

"God is love" (1 John 4:16). God loves every man, woman, and child unconditionally and forever. At baptism, God's love for us is not changed — our relationship with him is. Baptism is the way that we are united with the life, death, and Resurrection of Christ "so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life" (Romans 6:4). Through the power of the Holy Spirit who seals us as his own at baptism, we are adopted by God as his children, we are engrafted into the living spiritual organism that is his Church, and we are empowered to share God's royal status and his ongoing work to redeem the world.

Furthermore, at our baptism, we are not only united with Christ; we are also united with one another through Christ. "We, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another" (Romans 12:5). Having been adopted through baptism into a family of God's saints that is bigger than we can ever imagine, we are heirs of an experience of life that Jesus described as the kingdom of God, in which we continually grow in an awareness of the love of God that starts today and lasts forever. Our baptism into the life of Jesus Christ gives us the power to love God and to love one another the way God loves us.

Following the ancient practice of the Apostles and the early church, we baptize infants as well as adults. The gift of salvation and of new life in Christ is a free gift, preceding and making possible our response to it. "We love God because he first loved us" (1 John 4:19). In the same way that we were born into earthly life as a gift, so too we are born anew by God into heavenly life as a gift. The spiritual promises that are made on behalf of infants by their parents and godparents at baptism are affirmed when those children mature and are ready to participate in the Rite of Confirmation.

Because of our baptism, even when we feel lonely, we know that we are never alone because we trust in the indwelling presence of God. Because of our baptism, even when we feel sad, we know that we can place our hope in God whom we can trust to bring all things to serve his purpose. Because of our baptism, even when we feel weary, we know that we can trust in the power of God's Spirit who will always restore and renew us and will never leave us. All of these gifts, and so many more, are made possible through the gift that God makes of us himself to us and to all who receive him at baptism.

The people's responses are in bold.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN • 376 Joyful, joyful, we adore thee

HYMN TO JOY

OPENING ACCLAMATION

The Book of Common Prayer (BCP), p.299

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

There is one Body and one Spirit;

There is one hope in God's call to us;

One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;

One God and Father of all.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP, p. 232

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have given your only Son to be for us a sacrifice for sin, and also an example of godly life: Give us grace to receive thankfully the fruits of his redeeming work, and to follow daily in the blessed steps of his most holy life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE LESSON

Ephesians 5:15-20

Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The response is sung first by the choir, then by all as indicated.

Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, * in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.
 Great are the deeds of the Lord! *
 they are studied by all who delight in them.
 His work is full of majesty and splendor, *
 and his righteousness endures for ever.
 He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *
 the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

Response

He gives food to those who fear him; *
 he is ever mindful of his covenant.
 He has shown his people the power of his works *
 in giving them the lands of the nations.
 The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *
 all his commandments are sure.
 They stand fast for ever and ever, *
 because they are done in truth and equity.

Response

Please stand, as you are able.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 6:51-58

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."
 The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" So Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ

THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER

BCP, p. 306

The Celebrant blesses the water, first saying:

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BAPTISM

BCP, p. 307

Celebrant I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Celebrant places a hand on the person's head, marking on the forehead the sign of the cross and saying:

Celebrant You are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever. Amen.

The Godparents are presented with a candle, and the Celebrant says:

Celebrant Receive the light of Christ. Bear it faithfully in the world.

After all have been baptized, the Celebrant says:

Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give them an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.

Celebrant Let us welcome the newly baptized.

People We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

THE OFFERTORY

Verily, verily I say unto you

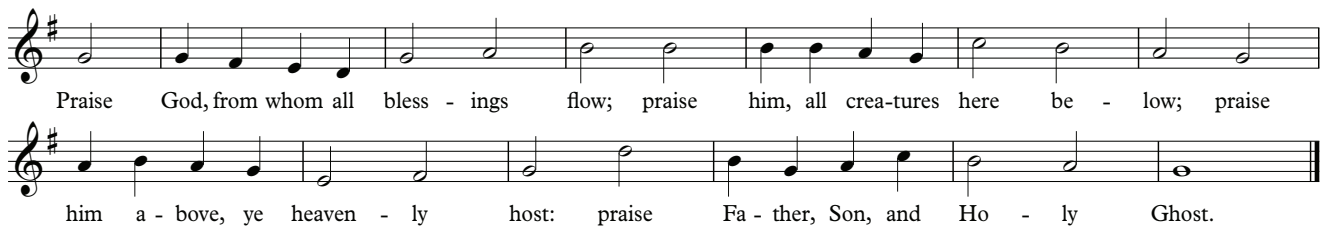

Thomas Tallis

Verily, verily I say unto you,
except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, ye have not life in you.
Whoso eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life,
and I will raise him up at the last day (bis)
For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.
He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood
dwelleth in me, and I in him.

Please stand, as you are able.

AT THE PRESENTATION The Doxology

OLD 100TH

him a - bove, ye heaven - ly host: praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer A

BCP, p. 361

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

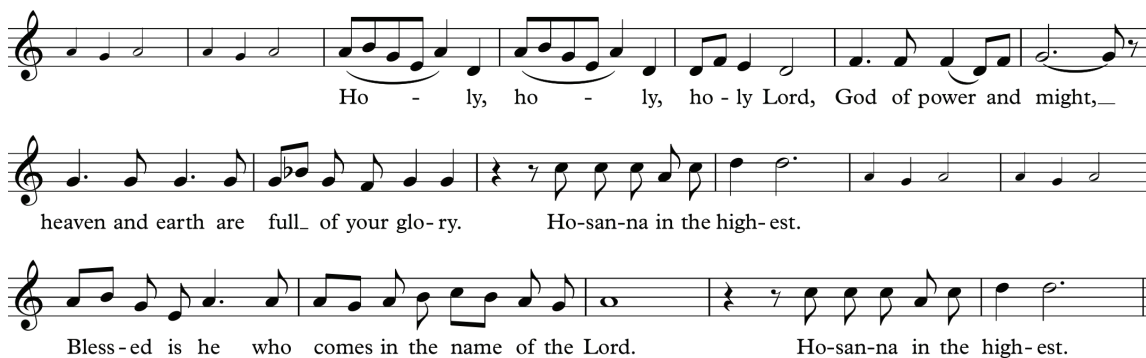

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The celebrant says the proper preface.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, holy, holy

(Hymnal S128) Mathias

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, ... heaven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est.
Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Please kneel or remain standing, as you are able.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD & THE FRACTION ANTHEM

Our next guest preacher is the Rev. Christopher Bowhay, who served as Senior Associate Rector from 2012-2015 with a special focus on outreach, worship, and adult formation.

St. George's 101 Come enjoy a fellowship dinner on Wednesday, September 11, at 6:00pm in the Bradford Gallery. You will learn more about our mission and core values, as well as get to know some of our clergy. All prospective members are invited to attend as we share how the church will support you and how you can become a part of our community.

Essentials Small Groups: Being the Church For many Christians, the church is simply a building that is used on Sundays. But according to Scripture and the broader Christian tradition, there is nothing else like it on earth. It is more than an association, a movement, a gathering, or even a nation. In this iteration of our Essentials program, we will focus on biblical passages that reveal the true nature of the church, our life with one another, and, of course, our life with God in Christ. Learn how you are part of something greater than we could ever imagine. New in person and online small groups launch on September 16. Visit stgeorgesnashville.org/essentials or contact Martha Rodes at 615-385-2150 x 249 or martha.rodes@stgeorgesnashville.org.

Your Input Needed for Vestry Nominees St. George's Vestry Nominating Committee is comprised of past and current members of St. George's vestry charged with the important task of seeking and recommending qualified candidates to serve as vestry members for three-year terms. This committee is actively soliciting input from fellow parishioners to fill the vestry slate for the election in January. If you have a recommendation or would like to serve on the vestry, use our online nomination form no later than September 30 at stgeorgesnashville.org/vestrynominees. This year's nominating committee is: Jan Callen (Committee Chair), Emily Walker (Senior Warden), Hudson Walker (Junior Warden), Louis Garrard, Amy Harwell, Kate Meriwether, Sterling Price, Charlotte Ward, and Breck Wheeler. We are thankful for your valuable feedback and for the hard work the committee does to ensure the very best leadership for our parish.

Tomato Season Is Here St. George's Farmers Market features 25 vendors of produce, meat, baked goods, flowers, and more. We're also joined each week by food trucks with sweet and savory options. At the end of each season, our net proceeds are donated to a non-profit responding to food insecurity in Nashville. Visit the market every Thursday from 3:30 to 6:30pm. Details and social media links can be found at stgeorgesnashville.org/farmersmarket.

Online Directory Our online directory is a secure way to share your preferred contact information with others in the St. George's community. It's also the easiest way to RSVP for church events, pay annual pledges, check in for nursery and childcare, and find phone numbers, email addresses, and home addresses for your friends in the church. To make sure your contact information is listed in the directory or to learn how to access it from our website or the mobile app, contact ashley.sullivan@stgeorgesnashville.org.

Your Gifts Make a Difference Thank you for supporting St. George's with your financial gifts and pledges. Donations like yours allow us to continue serving this congregation and our community by offering worship services, discipleship opportunities, and mission work. We could not do this work without you. Visit stgeorgesnashville.org/give or scan the QR code to donate online.

Safety Committee Update

Beginning Sunday, August 18, we are launching a volunteer safety ministry for Sunday services. These volunteer church members will coordinate with the security resources already in place and be available to assist church members as needed. You will be able to identify them via a Safety Volunteer lanyard. Please know that we are not responding to a new, increased, or specifically identified threat. We simply believe that the addition of an alert, aware individual — familiar with St. George's — is one of the best steps we can take for safe and secure Sunday mornings. Please reach out to Pat Murphy with questions at 585-474-2911.
