

Exploring Jesus

“...in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.” Colossians 2:3

St. George's Episcopal Church
Winter-Spring 2025
Joe Ananias and Friends

“More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord.”
Philippians 3:8

“To turn from everything to one face is to find oneself face to face with everything.”
Elizabeth Bowen, The Heat of the Day (1948)

Class Schedule

February 2: The Image of the Invisible God

With Dr. Christina Carnes Ananias, Lilly Endowment Faculty Fellow, Belmont University

February 9: The Messiah of Israel

With Dr. Christina Carnes Ananias, Lilly Endowment Faculty Fellow, Belmont University

February 16: The Preacher

With the Rev. Dr. Nicholas Norman-Krause, Assistant Professor of Christian Ethics, Belmont University

February 23: The Storyteller

With the Rev. Malone Gilliam, Rector of St. George's Episcopal Church, Nashville

March 2: No Class

March 9: The Healer

With Steve Rethmeier, Former Pastor in the Association of Vineyard Churches and Associate of the Late John Wimber

March 16: The Gentle and Humble Heart of God

With the Rev. Margery Kennelly, Associate Rector, St. George's Episcopal Church, Nashville

March 23: The Man Who Created the World

With Dr. Taylor Ross, Instructor at Duke Divinity School

March 30: The God Who Wept and Bled

With the Rev. Dr. Nicholas Norman-Krause, Assistant Professor of Christian Ethics, Belmont University

April 6: The Risen and Coming King

With Dr. Adam Neder, Professor of Theology and Associate Dean, Belmont University

April 13: No Class - Palm Sunday

April 20: No Class - Easter

April 27: The Friend

With Dr. Christina Carnes Ananias, Lilly Endowment Faculty Fellow, Belmont University