COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP, p. 216

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
 Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE READING

Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said:

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts;
 the whole earth is full of his glory.”

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!"

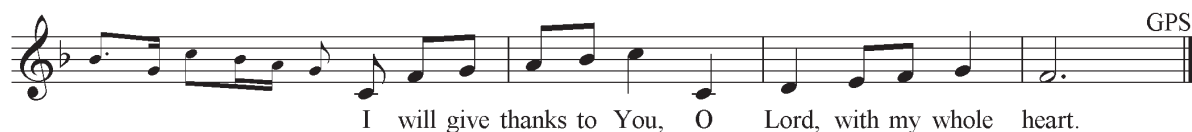

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 138

chant by J. Naylor

The response is sung first by the choir, then by all as indicated.

I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; *
before the gods I will sing your praise.
I will bow down toward your holy temple
and praise your Name, *
because of your love and faithfulness;
For you have glorified your Name * and your word above all things.

Response

When I called, you answered me; *
you increased my strength within me.
All the kings of the earth will praise you, O Lord, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
They will sing of the ways of the Lord, *
that great is the glory of the Lord.

Response

Though the Lord be high, he cares for the lowly; *
he perceives the haughty from afar.
Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.
The Lord will make good his purpose for me; *
O Lord, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

Response

Please stand, as you are able.

NEW BRITAIN

Children in Grades K-4 process to Johnson Hall for Kids Chapel, returning at the Peace.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 5:1-11

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

THE NICENE CREED

BCP, p. 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, FORM II

BCP, p. 385

I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for the office of the Archbishop of Canterbury; Sean, our Presiding Bishop; John, our Bishop; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people. We especially pray for persecuted Christians throughout the world and for all who are threatened for their religious beliefs. Pray for the Church. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people. We especially pray for Donald, our President; Bill, our Governor; Freddie, our Mayor; the members of our parish in the armed forces serving our country; our enemies and those who wish us harm; those affected by violence and conflict around the world; those affected by the wildfires in the Greater Los Angeles area; and the Antioch High School community. Pray for justice and peace. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison. We pray for those who are ill, especially Reba Barker, Lucius Burch, Bob Daggett, Art Dougherty, Ruth Hagerty, Mary Jackson, Susan Narramore, Acra Samuels, David Smith, and Trish Thomas. Pray for those in any need or trouble. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of him. Pray that they may find and be found by him. Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake; That our works may find favor in your sight. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

I ask your prayers for the departed, especially Noel Sullivan. Pray for those who have died. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

I ask your thanksgiving for the birth of Lucy Carolyn Betz, daughter of Margaret Anne & Ches Betz and granddaughter of Zee & Brad Pendleton. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored. Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day. Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Silence

*The celebrant prays the concluding Collect and the people respond Amen.

Please kneel, as you are able.

CONFESSION OF SIN

BCP, p. 360

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

BCP, p. 360

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand, as you are able.

THE PEACE

BCP, p. 360

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Please be seated.

If we believe that Jesus died and rose again

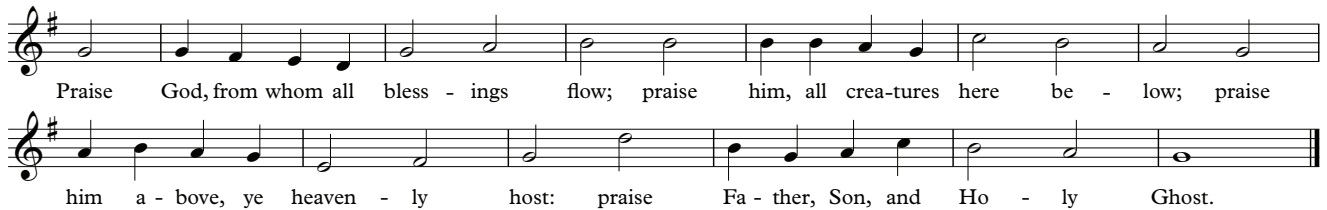

John Goss

If we believe that Jesus died and rose again,
Even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.
Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

AT THE PRESENTATION The Doxology

(Hymn 380, verse 3) Old 100th

Praise God, from whom all bless - ings flow; praise him, all crea-tures here be - low; praise him a - bove, ye heaven - ly host: praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer C

BCP, p. 369

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy

(Hymnal S129) Powell

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high- est.

Please kneel or remain standing, as you are able.

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his Name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

NOTES ON RECEIVING COMMUNION All baptized Christians are invited to receive the sacrament, regardless of age or denomination. Those who have not been baptized are welcome to a blessing—indicate your desire for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest. If desired, you may intinct (dip) your wafer at the altar rail or have the LEM intinct it for you. Gluten-free wafers are available at the side station.

After receiving communion, a Prayer Minister will be available in the front right corner of the Nave to pray with you for intercessions, thanksgivings, or other petitions.

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

BCP, p. 366

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

MUSIC NOTE

If we believe by John Goss (1800-1890) is a direct response to our epistle reading for today. Composer of the well-known hymn tune "Praise, my soul, the King of heaven," Goss was also an editor of hymnals and psalters. This anthem shows a great sensitivity to the scripture reading, reflecting its tone through its lyrical melodies, dynamic swells, and beautiful harmonic lines. The setting of Tantum ergo for today's communion anthem includes two verses from the full Latin hymn Pange lingua written by St. Thomas Aquinas. This text is often used during communion services, and over the centuries, many composers put music to this text. Today's tuneful anthem was written by contemporary composer Jessica French, who recently has gained greater recognition nationally and internationally. Many notable choirs around the world have sung her music, including the BBC Singers and St. Thomas Choir in New York City. French uses a wonderful hymn-like tune, staying true to the text's origin. The choir and organ support the tune beautifully, which is invigorated at the end with an acrobatic descant by the sopranos.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In your prayers this week, please pray for the following:

In the Anglican Communion, we pray for the office of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Anglican Church of Australia.

In The Episcopal Church, we pray for the Presiding Bishop, Sean Rowe.

In the Diocese of Tennessee, we pray for our Bishop, John Bauerschmidt, and St. Matthew's Church in McMinnville.

In our community, we pray for Woodmont Christian Church.

In our parish, we pray for the scouts and leaders of Troops 78 and 31; our Nashville Fellows, Abby, Sarah Beth, Parker, and Joe; and our organ scholar, Kateri.

Coffee and Conversation Seniors are invited to join us in the Gathering Space the second Thursday of every month from 9:00 to 10:30am to enjoy conversation without any agenda. Sweet treats and coffee provided. No reservations, just join us on Thursday, February 13.

Camino Interest Meeting While Christian Pilgrimage includes beautiful travel, it is also fruitful in providing a sense of connection to the worldwide community of believers as we draw nearer to God in prayer, silence, and fellowship with other Christians along the way. Join the Rev. Jason Terhune on Thursday, February 13 at 6:00pm in the Conference Room or online to learn more about St. George's upcoming pilgrimage along the Portuguese Way. Details and meeting link found at stgeorgesnashville.org/camino.

St. George's 101 Come enjoy dinner and fellowship, learn more about our mission and core values, and get to know some of our clergy. All prospective members are invited to attend this special event on Tuesday, February 18 at 6:00pm as we share how the church will support you and how you can become a part of our community. RSVP for the next event at stgeorgesnashville.org/welcome.

Breaking Bread This parish-wide fellowship dinner is a fun way to share a meal with your church family. Come to Hampton Hall this Wednesday, February 19 at 6:00pm. Suggested donation is $8 per person, and proceeds are donated to the Choristers program. RSVP online at stgeorgesnashville.org/news or 615-385-2150 x 262.

Gallery Event with Songwriter Andrew Peterson The Rabbit Room's Andrew Peterson returns to guide us in a creative reflection of "Made Flesh," the curated visual art exhibit in the Bradford Gallery. Come on Wednesday, February 19 at 5:30pm to view the exhibit in the gallery, then move into Legacy Hall at 6:00pm for an evening of story and song from our guest presenter. This event is free, but registration is required, and tickets are going fast—visit stgeorgesnashville.org/gallery to reserve your place.

Compline Stemming from monastic practice, Compline is the last service of the day before bedtime. This brief and beautiful service is set in a darkened church and sung by a small men's choir. Come on Wednesday, February 19 at 9:15pm in the Nave and remain as long as you wish after the service in this quiet space, departing in silence.

Prime Time Luncheon Back by popular demand, Jimmy the Cricket (Scott Smith) returns for storytelling and history with "Joy in Small Town Touring" on Thursday, February 20 at 11:30am. Scott's presentations are always a fan favorite, and we can promise you'll leave with smiles, knowledge, and stories. Invite a friend and make your reservation for the $12.00 buffet lunch at stgeorgesnashville.org/seniors or call 615-385-2150 x 262.

Plumbing the Depths of Forgiveness Men of the church are invited to join with Malone Gilliam on Saturday, February 22 as we explore the richness of forgiveness. This half-day retreat will include time for fellowship and discussion and can set a helpful foundation for us as we prepare for the Lenten season. We'll gather at St. George's and will begin our day with breakfast, concluding before lunch. The cost of the retreat is only $10—please register online for this meaningful time together. Details at stgeorgesnashville.org/men.

Special Choral Evensong with Sewanee In our ongoing desire to partner with other ensembles and organizations, we welcome the University Choir from Sewanee on Sunday, February 23 at 5:00pm. In tandem with our own choristers and lay clerks, this Evensong led by two choirs will boast more than 90 singers, two conductors, and three organists—all leading worship at St. George's for the first time together. The service will include the Collegium Regale canticles by Herbert Howells as well as Parry's I was glad. Join us to give glory to God at this special musical offering.

Women's Breakfast: Walking in Faith Women of all generations are invited to a special breakfast on Thursday, February 27 at 8:30am. Renowned speaker Sarah Condon will lead us as we orient our hearts and minds ahead of the Lenten season. The Rev. Sarah Condon is an Episcopal priest, podcaster, and writer who shares about forgiveness and the unexpectedness of God's grace in a world that demands brutality. Tables will be assigned to create fellowship across generations so that women can engage with friends and foster new connections. RSVP online for this $10 breakfast and request childcare for children five and under, if applicable. Details at stgeorgesnashville.org/women.

Family Event! Mardi Gras Party & Parade Families with children are invited to our annual Mardi Gras Party on Saturday, March 1 at 5:30pm in Legacy Hall. Our Mardi Gras Party is a celebration for families with children on Saturday evening right before we enter the season of Lent. We'll have pizza and king cake, decorate masks, play games, and more! The next morning, we'll have a parade at The Table led by the king & queen from the night before—complete with Mardi Gras beads! Registration is open for this free event at stgeorgesnashville.org/children.

You're invited to the annual Pancake Supper! Bring your whole family and join us in Legacy Hall on Tuesday, March 4 for an evening of parish-wide fellowship and a hot breakfast as we celebrate Shrove Tuesday (the day before Ash Wednesday) and support St. George's Youth Ministry. Our youth volunteers will be manning the griddles from 5:30 to 7:00pm—come by anytime for a feast of unlimited eggs, sausage, and pancakes with all the fixin's. Breakfast-for-Dinner is $7.00 per person, and all proceeds go toward trip scholarships for the youth that helped serve. Help us plan by buying your ticket early at stgeorgesnashville.org/pancakes.

Calling all VBS Campers! Registration is officially open for another exciting summer camp with St. George's VBS. This year, children in Pre-K through 4th graders are invited to explore the great outdoors at VBS 2025: True North. From Tuesday, July 15 to Friday, July 18 we'll learn all about how Jesus is our true North—a faithful friend we can always trust. Don't wait—space is limited for this favorite event. Learn more at stgeorgesnashville.org/children.

Men's Green River Canoe Adventure Embark on an unforgettable men's canoe trip along the stunning Green River in Utah, navigating the breathtaking Labyrinth and Stillwater Canyons. Enjoy two nights in Moab and five days of adventure on the river, complete with first-class meals. This men's fellowship adventure offers a unique opportunity to strengthen bonds and create lasting memories amidst nature's beauty. Join us for an enriching experience that blends adventure with purpose! Complete the registration online at stgeorgesnashville.org/men and reserve your place with a $500 deposit. Space is limited.

FRIENDSHIP CORNER

PRACTICING THE "ONE ANOTHERS"

"And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works." (Hebrews 10:24)

This week's reflection is from Eric Conte-Gordon: If we agree that love is the glue that holds us together and the reason God has placed us here, good works are a clear result of that love being put into action. If good works are like a flame, then love is the fuel. Therefore, we should endeavor to build a shining fire of love together as we reflect the kingdom of God on this earth through God's love.

Invitation: Are you holding fast to your faith in Jesus so you can help others do the same? How does love encourage you to help others and participate in good works?

If you have a "T" switch that is compatible with audio induction systems on your hearing aids, you may switch it on to hear the service better.

Using a smartphone and headphones or a Bluetooth-enabled hearing device, you can tune into the service using AudioFetch. Connect to the Wi-Fi network called AudioFetchExpress, then open the AudioFetch app to start listening.
