COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP, p. 233

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Let us pray.

Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE LESSON

James 2:1-17

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?

You do well if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. For the one who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty. For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The response is sung first by the choir, then by all as indicated.

Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, *
 which cannot be moved, but stands fast for ever.
 The hills stand about Jerusalem; *
 so does the Lord stand round about his people, from this time forth for evermore.
 The scepter of the wicked shall not hold sway over the land allotted to the just, *
 so that the just shall not put their hands to evil.
 Show your goodness, O Lord, to those who are good * and to those who are true of heart.
 As for those who turn aside to crooked ways,
 the Lord will lead them away with the evildoers; *
 but peace be upon Israel.

AZMON

Children in Grades K-4 process to Johnson Hall for Kids Chapel, returning at the Peace.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 7:24-37

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter." So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ

THE SERMON

The Rev. Christopher Bowhay

Please stand, as you are able.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, FORM VI

For the just and proper use of your creation;

For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

We pray especially for those affected by the violence and suffering in Israel, the Middle East, and Ukraine.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

We pray for persecuted Christians throughout the world and for all who are threatened for their religious beliefs.

For Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, our Presiding Bishop; and John, our Bishop; and for all bishops and other ministers;

For all who serve God in his Church.

We invite your prayers for the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

For your mercy is great.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

Silence

We will exalt you, O God our King;
And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, especially Peggy Dughman, wife of Joe Dughman, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;
Who put their trust in you.

The deacon says

We invite you to kneel for the confession of our sins.

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

BCP, p. 360

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand, as you are able.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Please be seated.

THE OFFERTORY

Jubilate Deo

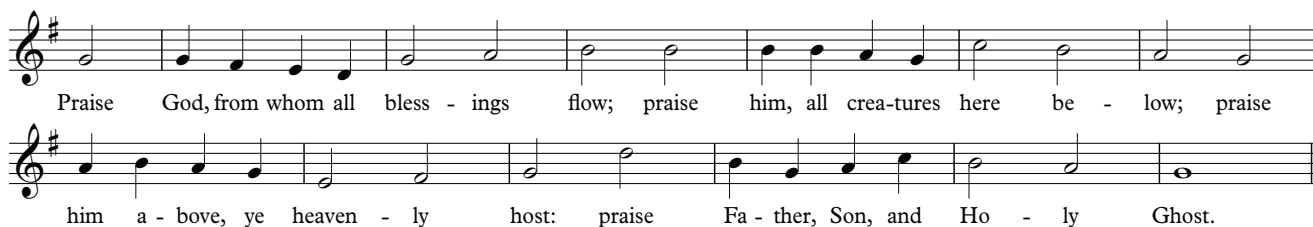

Herbert Howells

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands, serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.
Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise;
be thankful unto him, and speak good of his name.
For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting:
and his truth endureth from generation to generation.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Please stand, as you are able.

AT THE PRESENTATION The Doxology

OLD 100TH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer A

BCP, p. 361

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

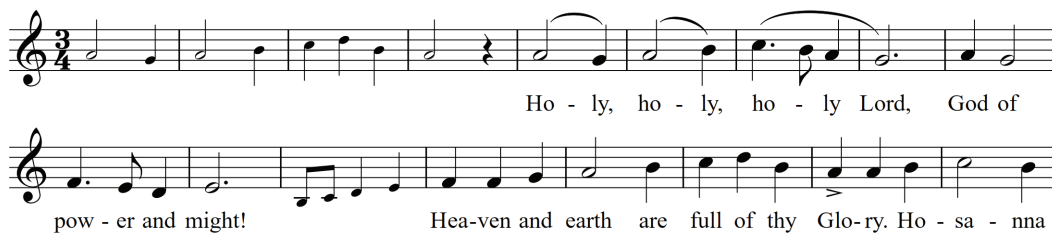

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The celebrant says the proper preface.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus from ST. GEORGE'S MASS

Woosug Kang

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might! Hea - ven and earth are full of thy Glo - ry. Ho - sa - nna

Please kneel or remain standing, as you are able.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

The service music in today's bulletin was written especially for the parishioners of St. George's by Director of Music Ministries, Woosug Kang, to celebrate 75th Anniversary of our parish titled St. George's Mass. Woosug focused on writing tuneful music that can be picked up easily for congregational singing. To help church members learn and become familiar with this new service music, we have put them online at stgeorgesnashville.org/music for everyone to listen and sing along to before next Sunday. We would love to have your full participation so this special setting can truly become our own.

The choir is pleased to be joined today by St. Dunstan's Choir, comprised of students in 1st and 2nd Grade.

SUNDAY SCHOOL
Starting September 8 at 10:05am

ADULTS

The Art of Faithful Reading - Johnson Hall

Led by the Rev. Margery Kennelly. Knowing how to read well takes years of effort and close attention, especially when we are reading a text as ancient as the Bible. Sometimes we scan Scripture just to extract some lesson or prove a point. But in this class, our goal will be to slow down and read the word of God to receive it fully.

The Rule of Life - Hampton Hall

Led by the Rev. Dr. David Barr and the Rev. Joe Ananias. Living in a world with rampant distraction can take a toll on our lives! We are pressured to live in an endless cycle of content and stimulation, but many of us long to live with patterns that are more satisfying and intentional. Come discuss Justin Whitmel Earley's book, Common Rule, and learn more about spiritual practices and habits that invite us into a deeper life with God.

Building Habits of Faith as a Family - Dandridge Hall (upstairs)

Led by the Rev. Sarah Puryear. As a family, regular habits that connect us to each other and to God can be a source of faith, wisdom, and encouragement. We will use Justin Whitmel Earley's book Habits of the Household to discuss ways our families can stay grounded in the hope and love of the gospel.

Seniors & Grandparents Forum - Room 218 (upstairs)

Led by the Rev. Richard Kew. One of the big challenges of being a senior today is the generation gaps growing wider and wider. All seniors and grandparents are invited to discover how to understand and thrive in this cultural climate. Join us as we seek to identify and address issues our culture raises, and issues we find ourselves seeking to relate to, pray for, and play our part in as we help raise the next generations.

Learning About Effective Prayer - Room 202 (upstairs)

Led by the Ven. Dr. Martin Odidi. Many Christians forget the true aspects of prayer as demonstrated in the Bible, and not all of us are as effective in our prayer as we want to be. Together, we'll learn aspects of prayer that will reignite the flame of love for this intimate conversation with God which will be a blessing in so many ways.

Ethics, Theology & Conversation - Conference Room (upstairs)

Facilitated by church members, this is a roundtable discussion of topics presented by members of the group.

Essentials Small Groups: Being the Church For many Christians, the church is simply a building that is used on Sundays. But according to Scripture and the broader Christian tradition, there is nothing else like it on earth. It is more than an association, a movement, a gathering, or even a nation. In this iteration of our Essentials program, we will focus on biblical passages that reveal the true nature of the church, our life with one another, and, of course, our life with God in Christ. Learn how you are part of something greater than we could ever imagine. New small groups launch on September 16 — join one in person or online by visiting stgeorgesnashville.org/essentials.

New Mentor Opportunities at Preston Taylor Ministries Beginning the week of September 9, Preston Taylor Ministries launches their 1:1 mentoring programs. They are seeking volunteers who love God and want to show his love to their students. While involved in all of their programs, mentors are especially needed for Breakfast & Bible Study and Dinner & Devotion. In particular, they are looking for more men to serve as mentors. Please email Alyssa Muller at alyssa@prestantaylorministries.org for details on how you can help.

St. George's 101 Come enjoy a fellowship dinner on Wednesday, September 11, at 6:00pm in Legacy Hall. You will learn more about our mission and core values, as well as get to know some of our clergy.
